

From the Pastor

Wow! What a great night we had this past Sunday for the Oakwood Cookout. I didn't hardly sleep Sunday night because I was so excited. The weather couldn't have been any better and we had a great crowd of both church members and Oakwood residents.

I was so proud to see so many church members there meeting new people and renewing old friendships. We were a church that Loved God, Loved Others, and Served Together in a great way. Church, as long as we stay committed to those three things like we did this past Sunday night, God is going to bless our efforts for Him. Dix River is the next neighborhood where we will host a cookout on the last Sunday of this month. We will still meet here the week before to pass out doorhangers and then be ready to go with the cookout that next week. After seeing the involvement of the church and the neighborhood we were in this past week, I'm excited for the next one!

Keep our students and teachers in prayer as they are getting ready for a new school year to begin this next week. We will have our special Educators Service this coming Sunday. It will be a great time of praying our teachers into the new school year. Don't miss it!

Musically Speaking

Stuart Underwood, Minister of Music

Thanks to Becky and Laura Lee for their offertory of "Jesus Saves". The Adult Choir (28 strong) sounded great on "Amazing Grace" (My Chains are Gone).

This Sunday we celebrate Educator's Dedication. With school starting on August 14, we will have a service to dedicate bot our students and educators as they embark on another school year. We have 18 educators and one student that will be participating in this service. Kendall Smith will be playing our offertory. Special music by Lisa Johnson and Rachael Yaden. Our speakers will be Connie Howerton and Susan Johnson. This will be a wonderful service as we help kick-off 2019-20.

Have a great week!
Stuart
