

Musically Speaking

Stuart Underwood, Minister of Music

Thanks to George Swope Munday for a great job on "There Is a Fountain" for our offertory. The Adult Choir did a wonderful job on "Let the Church Say Amen"

This Sunday Devona Stamper, Paula Playforth, and Becky Stogsdill will be playing the offertory. The Adult Choir will be singing "When God Has Another Plan" with soloist Lisa Johnson.

Next Sunday is the 5th Sunday Community Service at New Beginnings Methodist Church and it begins at 6 PM. The Adult Choir will be singing in the service which will be a service of music with groups from the participating churches. There will be an offering taken to benefit Ft. Logan Cooperative Ministries. If you are not involved in a small group study join us for this great service!

Have a great week!
Stuart

From the Pastor

What a great time we had at the church picnic this past Sunday! If you missed it, you missed great food, awesome fellowship, and more good food. You know, Godly fellowship with your church home is something you shouldn't neglect. I've heard it said by others, and I believe it, that they do not know what they would do without a church family. It's hard to feel like you're a part of a family by just showing up in the same room once a week. Don't get me wrong, our Sunday worship time is a great thing, but it doesn't do much for producing that feeling of family that is so good. If Sunday worship doesn't do it, how do we become closer to those who we attend church with each week? I believe the first step is by finding a Sunday School or small group Bible Study to be involved in every week. We have Sunday School groups for all ages, there are Wednesday night activities like Children and Youth groups and Prayer Meeting with Bible Study to attend, then on Sunday evenings in the Spring and Fall we offer different group Bible Studies that anyone can be a part of. If you've never been a part of a small group for prayer and Bible Study like these, you do not know what you are missing! If you enjoy singing, get involved with the choir. If you see a Men's Ministry event pop up, join in! If there is a group of women doing something, jump at the opportunity. And for sure do not miss the times we, as a church family, get together for fellowship like this past Sunday. If you'll get involved in some of these ways within the church, you will then find yourself feeling like you are a part of a family of other church goers who will be there for you and will minister to you in times that you need people the most. To me, that's the beauty of having a church family. Don't miss out on the great blessing that being close to your church family can provide!

Love each of you!
Bro. Justin
